Dated 22nd September, 2005

Between:

Grama Lakshmi Mahila Gandhi S.H.G.

Rep. by Smt. G.S.Swarna .. Petitioner

And

The District Collector,

Chittoor District and two others .. Respondents

HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE K.C. BHANU

W.P.No.20734 of 2005

ORAL ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the 1st respondent in not disposing of the Revision Petition filed by the petitioner on 10.8.2005 as arbitrary and illegal.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies and perused the material placed on record.

The 2nd respondent-Joint Collector, in his proceedings dated 1.7.2005, while remanding the matter to the Revenue Divisional Officer, Madanapalle, directed him to notify Fair Price Shop afresh for appointment of dealer by giving an opportunity to all the parties. If Fair Price Shop is notified, then the rights of the third party will intervene so as to protect the right of the petitioner. Till the disposal of the revision petition filed by the petitioner, status-quo can be maintained.

Therefore, the writ petition is disposed of directing the 1st respondent to dispose of the revision petition within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and only after passing orders on the revision petition, they can proceed further for issuing fresh notification for appointment of fresh dealer. No costs.
